UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Issued by the Department of Transportation
on the 16th day of October, 2001

Reissuance of authority to

ILIAMNA AIR TAXI, INC.

to reflect the effective date of the scheduled passenger authority contained in its section 41102 certificate

Served: October 16, 2001

Docket 42504

ORDER REISSUING CERTIFICATE

By Order 92-7-28, served July 22, 1992, the Department found that Iliamna Air Taxi, Inc., continued to be fit, willing, and able to conduct interstate passenger air transportation and reissued to it a certificate authorizing such operations.<sup>1</sup> This certificate was subsequently reissued by Order 98-7-6, served July 8, 1998.

While the carrier was determined to be fit for scheduled passenger operations, it did not hold the required Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) authority to conduct such operations and, as a result, the certificate issued to Iliamna was effective for on-demand air transportation operations only.<sup>2</sup> The certificate stated that the authority to perform scheduled passenger air transportation would become effective five days after we had received a copy of Iliamna's FAA-issued Air Carrier Certificate and Amended Operations Specifications authorizing it to engage in such operations.

On October 10, 2001, Iliamna submitted evidence that it had obtained amended Operations Specifications from the FAA authorizing it to conduct scheduled passenger operations within the State of Alaska. Our review of these documents found them to be satisfactory and, therefore, the scheduled passenger authority contained in Iliamna's section 41102 certificate was allowed to become effective on October 15, 2001. By this <sup>1</sup> Iliamna was originally found fit to engage in scheduled interstate air transportation in June 1985 (see Order 85-6-2). Its certificate was made effective for on-demand operations within the State of Alaska on June 18, 1985 (see Order 85-6-51).

<sup>2</sup> Only on-demand operations within the State of Alaska were effective as Iliamna did not possess any FAA authority to conduct operations outside of Alaska.

satisfactory and, therefore, the scheduled passenger authority contained in Iliamna's section 41102 certificate was allowed to become effective on October 15, 2001. By this order, we reissue to the carrier its certificate to reflect the effectiveness of the scheduled passenger authority contained therein.<sup>3</sup>

ACCORDINGLY, Acting under authority assigned by the Department in its Regulations, 14 CFR 385.12:

1. We reissue to Iliamna Air Taxi, Inc., the interstate scheduled passenger section 41102 certificate last reissued to it by Order 98-7-6, in the attached form to reflect the October 15, 2001, effective date of the scheduled passenger authority contained therein.
2. We will serve a copy of this order on the persons listed in Attachment A.

Persons entitled to petition the Department for review of this order under the Department's Regulations, 14 CFR 385.30, may file their petitions within 10 days of the service date of this order.

The action confirmed in this order was effective when taken and the filing of a petition for review shall not alter its effectiveness.

By:

Randall D. Bennett
Director
Office of Aviation Analysis

<sup>3</sup> Because the FAA authority held by Iliamna continues to authorize only operations within Alaska, the reissued section 41102 will be effective only for intra-Alaska operations as well.
